

Teaching Tips from AAEA Award Winners

2013 AAEA Meeting
GSS and TLC Section Track Session

Sofia Kotsiri, Ph.D.
Agricultural & Resource Economics
North Carolina State University

Teaching Contexts

- Principles of Microeconomics
- Fundamentals of Economics

“Fail to prepare is prepare to fail”

Teaching Philosophy

- Students' centered
  - Instructor is the facilitator
  - Provide structure and resources
- Take it to the heart
  - Provide energy and support
  - Provide feedback and reflection

Teaching Philosophy

- Assessment
  - What did they learn
  - How it can be improved
- Connection to Reality
  - Real World Examples
  - Consistent with Curriculum/Flexibility

Professional Development

- Certificate of Accomplishment in Teaching (CoAT)

- Mentorship and Teaching Practicum (MATP)

- Graduate Leadership Development Series (GLDS)

Professional Development

- Attend workshops in...
- Teach in a different classroom environment/different school's mission
- Obtain Transferable Skills

How do I Teach

- Planning and Logistics
- Practical Tips
- Motivational Strategies
- Classroom Management

How do I Teach

Planning- Logistics	Practical Tips	Motivational Strategies	Classroom Management
Learn Physical Environment	10 minute lecture	Patient and approachable	“Proximity”
Learn Names	Measurable outcomes	Sensitive to personal needs	Tell my pet peeves
Ice breaking techniques	Repeat Learning outcomes	Feedback on progress	Consistent with the syllabus
Circulate Attendance Sheet	Summary Notes (lesson plans) and Rubrics	Anonymous Assessment	Meet Deadlines
Open door policy	Hold review sessions	Cooperation among students	Professional Outfit
	Write on the board

Time Management

Typical Class

Thank you!

FEEDBACK

